MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Telecon with Doug Gregory, Rep. Young's Staffer

1. Doug Gregory returned my call today. I asked him if, in view of the passage of Mr. Young's amendment, the latter still desired a briefing on the utility of the polygraph program and on the two cases of espionage that he vaguely remembered from his tour on HPSCI. Doug said he and Mr. Young really appreciated the help we gave them, especially the letter from the DDCI which turned out to be very effective. He said he did not believe there was a need for a briefing at this point unless the Agency really wished to brief Mr. Young. As I left it with Doug, we would not make briefing arrangements unless we heard from him that Mr. Young definitely wished to be briefed.

2. I then called [] OS, to tell him that there would be no immediate need to brief Mr. Young.
